WELCOME TO THE GARDEN DAYS

Dear garden lovers and visitors of the Garden Days of Beervelde,

Welcome to Lochristi, the flower County.

During the last two centuries, Lochristi has played an important role in the world of horticulture. Everyone remembers the Begonia Festival and nowadays Lochristi continues along its flowered path. Greenhouses and flowers surround us everywhere. At the City Council, we are very attached to the Garden Days of Beervelde. This event contributes to the reputation of Lochristi and reflects the dynamism of our flourishing municipality.

This year we have a double reason to celebrate!

The spotlight in Beervelde this year has been put not only on flowers and plants, but also on the tale of Reynard the Fox. The mid thirteenth-century Dutch beast epic “Van den vos Reynaert”, written by a certain Willem and featuring the village of Hyfte (as Beervelde, a part of our municipality), is considered to be the climax of Dutch medieval literature.

As President of the Intercommunal Project “Land van Reynaert”, we are delighted that Reynard the Fox has been chosen as the theme of this sixtieth edition of the Garden Days of Beervelde. We thank Count Renaud de Kerchove for this wonderful initiative and pleasant collaboration.

We wish you, dear visitor, an enjoyable visit and a lot of fun in following the representations illustrating the tricks played by Reynard to anyone who crosses his path.

Yves Deswaene – Mayor
Marie-Claire Van Nieuwenhuysse –
 Councillor for Culture & Tourism

Here, in the “County of Waes” (the region between Ghent and the left bank of the Schelde near Antwerp), we are particularly proud that an author (of whom we know only his first name, William or Willem in Dutch) produced a version that takes place in our region and which, over time, has become famous “worldwide”.

In this version, to make his lies more credible, Reynard quotes several names of places. He claims that Izengrin the Wolf, Brun the Bear, Grimbert the Badger and Tibert the Tomcat colluded somewhere between Ghent and the village of Hyfte in order to overthrow King Noble, the Lion. Hyfte is a stone’s throw from Beervelde and in early April 2018, an old road sign on which both Ghent and Hyfte are mentioned was discovered in the Beervelde Park. In short, everything leads us to think that it was in Beervelde that the conspirators came together.

To celebrate this discovery, the municipality of Lochristi and we decided to make Reynard the Fox the theme of this sixtieth edition of the Garden Days of Beervelde.

Count Renaud de Kerchove

On Saturday and Sunday (not Friday), actors will re-enact the main episodes of the tale of Reynard the Fox, as told by the famous Willem between 1230 and 1260.

FREE SERVICE

Plant 'safe locker' and transport service for heavy / large purchases

PLANT 'SAFE LOCKER'

You don't want to carry your purchases all day long? No problem.

Drop them off at our Plant 'safe locker' (stand 237)

where they will be placed into numbered crates and you will receive a ticket with the matching numbers. The crates will then be transported by our team members to the pick-up point at the exit (stand 100). When it is time to go home, you can collect your purchases and carry them the remaining distance to your car, or bring your car to them. Easy and hassle free!

Transport service for heavy / large purchases

Should you decide to buy a painting, sculpture, piece of furniture or any other heavy or large item, our transport service team members are available to transport it for free to our secure pick-up point at the exit (stand 100). You can then drive your own vehicle to that area and load up the item directly.

King Noble, the lion, summons all his barons to the palace. Everyone goes except Reynard. Many of his barons complain about Reynard's misdoings and when the rooster Chanteclair arrives with the remains of his daughter Coppe, the King decides to send Brun the bear to fetch Reynard at Malpertus where he lives. Once at Malpertus, instead of sticking to his mission, Brun the bear is tempted by honeycombs which according to Reynard could be found in a tree at carpenter Lamfroyt's. It's a trap. By pulling on the edges, the split tree closes around the bear's paws and muzzle. The villagers try to kill Brun but Brun manages to escape. In the fight he loses an ear. Then King Noble sends Tibert the cat. Same scenario: Tibert is tempted by mice that were to be found in the parson's barn. It's another trap. Reynard knows that the priest, following his visit the night before, had placed a noose trap. Tibert is caught. Another fight. Tibert loses an eye but manages to escape and return to Noble's court with the noose still around his neck. The third envoy is he says, to thwart a conspiracy hatched by his own father, Grimbert (his uncle), Izengrin, Brun and Tibert. Reynard claims that the conspirators' plan failed because he managed to get his hands on their money. To win the trusts of the King and the Queen he confides to them that the loot is hidden underground at the foot of young birches not far from the well by the well-known believes him. Reynard asks for a bear-skin bag and Izengrin's boots, which the King grants him. Reynard asks to be accompanied by Belin the ram and Couart the hare until Malpertus. Once again, the King agrees to Reynard's request. At Malpertus, while Belin is outside, Couart the hare is murdered and eaten. Reynard gives Belin his bear-skin bag with a letter of REYNARD THE FOX, a summery

Grimbert the badger, Reynard's uncle. This time Reynard agrees. As expected, he is sentenced to death. Brun the bear, Ysengrin the wolf and Tibert the tomcat hang a rope to the gallows. With the three of them away from court, Reynard tries to exculpate himself. He tells the King - who believes him - that the reason he is still on the throne, is thanks to him. He has managed, cherry trees in Hulsterlo (in the vicinity of Antwerp). Izengrin and Brun, returning from the gallows, are thrown into prison. Reynard explains to the King and the Queen that he can not accompany them to the place where the treasure is because he is excommunicated. To right this situation, he wants to go on a pilgrimage to Rome and then to Jerusalem. The King to the King. At Court, the bag is opened. There is no letter but ... Couart's head. The King understands that he has been fooled all along. Brun and Izengrin are acquitted and given permission to chase sheep for centuries and centuries. Reynard and his family decided to settle under other skies and disappear into the wild.

WALKING in Beervelde Park

The Park is also accessible outside the Garden Days.

During the 'Garden Days', walking in the woods is highly recommended. Indeed, we maintain the maze of footpaths for this very purpose. With this leaflet and map, you have everything you need to go and explore.

GROUP VISIT

A guided visit to the Park can be organized for groups of at least 15 people. Usually the visits are done by Count Renaud de Kerchove himself. The visit lasts about one hour and amounts to € 5 / pers and represents a healthy walk in a very, very large garden. Usually the tour starts at the Coach house, accessible via the Toverstraat (see plan). Do you wish to combine the group visit to the Park with a lunch or coffee buffet? Then we would like to welcome you in Feestzaal Breughel (see plan) where the tour can start and end.

For all additional information: +32(0)9 356 81 82 or info@parkvanbeervelde.be

INDIVIDUAL VISIT

The domain is not equipped for visits without a guide. Nevertheless, we never refused access to a walker between sunrise and sunset, on condition that he signed up. Either via email (rdk@parkvanbeervelde.be), by phone (+ 32 (0)9 356 81 82) or by registering at the secretariat (courtyard Coach house, steps up).

The entrance is via the Toverstraat where a large parking lot is provided. Entrance is free.

1. This estate stretches over an area of 25 hectares (62 acres) and has belonged to the same family since 1783 (235 years). The layout, in landscape style, dates back to 1873, to the Romantic era. The basic idea is to bring, in a relatively small area, all of the elements together that one would want in an ideal landscape: romantic views; gently rolling meadows; the illusion of a clearing in a forest; winding paths; erratic water features; bridges; fairy tale buildings etc. The rule is: "Everything is manmade, but it must appear to be natural."
2. Here you can go straight ahead but it is much more fun (especially in dry weather) to take the small path on the right. The rhododendrons on the left of the track were displayed at the Ghent Flower Show in 1985.
3. Remarkable scene right of the path. This tree has keeled over and has given birth to a great number of offspring. A magical place.
4. On your left, under a thick layer of earth, you will find an icehouse. Years ago, before refrigerators existed, people cut ice from the pond and stored it here. Today it is an ideal place for some twenty bats to hibernate. Please do not disturb them. From this point you can either go straight or follow the path to (5).
5. Great example of a 'woodland garden' with large, deciduous azaleas among very beautiful and large oak and beech trees. At the end of May this scene is at its best. The visitor should note that some of the oak are dead. We decided not to remove them but to let nature take its course. Pieces of wood might fall down. By continuing straight ahead into 2 or 4, this little risky section can be avoided.

6. Here you have the choice: either go straight, or turn left for a shorter walk with a nice view of the pond from a bridge (12). The path between (6) and (7) runs through a collection of Hamamelis (witch hazel), which produce seedlings. These large shrubs are at their most beautiful when they bloom in February. To be noted in particular, on the right, planted a little too close to the path, Hamamelis "Jelena", a witch hazel with orange flowers, named in honour of Jelena De Belder (Arboretum Kalmthout), an enthusiastic botanist who has been an inspiration to many people.
7. You are now at 'the Keyzerlo'. Here the walker can choose between the old path on the left and the new path on the right. A 'loo' or 'Lo' is a historical term for a clearing in a forest (cfr. Lo-Christi, but also Beverlo, Tongerlo, Waterloo ...). 'Keyzer' in honour of César De Keyzer and his wife Rosine Matthijs, horticulturalists from Lochristi. Next to the commercial range, they have put a lot of effort into recovering and increasing the oldest varieties of deciduous azaleas, a group known as the perennial 'Hardy Ghent' (short for winter hardy Ghent azaleas). All young plants you find here come from their nursery.
8. After a short walk in a shaded part of the forest where broad buckler ferns grow under the trees, we arrive at a clearing surrounded by rhododendrons and large wild azaleas (Rhododendron luteum, formerly Azalea pontica). Particularly nice in May.
9. From here you have a beautiful view of the Coach house, where the vehicles (horse-drawn carriages) of the family were kept. Sometimes people remark that there is no castle in Beervelde *, to which the Count replies that the estate may have no castle but it has the most beautiful garages in the world!
* The castle was demolished in 1948. The current house was built on its foundations.
10. The pavilion. Many people wonder what this building is for. The answer is: simply an eye catcher. Its only purpose is to be beautifully set within the landscape. From the terrace you have a wonderful view of the house. This house was built in 1948 on the site where the castle stood between 1873 and 1948.
11. Here one has the choice of returning to the real world or prolonging the walk in paradise with a stroll through the meadows, heading towards (12), (6) and a bit further (2), the starting point of your hike.
12. From the bridge in (12) one has a nice view of the pond. The water does not come from a river; it is groundwater. Several years ago, after a dry summer, there was so little water that all the fish died. Shortly afterwards a part of the pond was dredged and now it is once again populated with fish.
